STRATEGIC GOALS

The 2020/21 Executive Board determined their priorities during the summer of 2020. These goals were rooted in the GSS’s purposes and reflected the wider context the board found themselves in. Broadly, these priorities can be separated into four themes: Institutional Stability, Member Engagement, Advocacy & Relationship Building, and Equity & Representation. The remainder of this report discusses the actions the Executive took throughout their term as well as opportunities/challenges for the future.

INSTITUTIONAL STABILITY

The 2020/21 Executive Board started their term approximately two weeks after the university began primarily off-campus operations due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Subsequently, the board’s early activities were focused on navigating through the financial uncertainty of the organization and the emergency closure of the restaurant brought on by the pandemic. Later in the summer, the GSS’s Executive Director of fifteen years left the organization for other opportunities. As such, the Executive Board worked to ensure a smooth transition to a new Executive Director and to account for the institutional knowledge lost.

Steps Taken:
- Struck three working groups to address the various challenges brought on by the pandemic, those working groups were:
  - Members needs and communications,
  - Financial planning, and
  - Operational risk management
- Held a referendum to automatically enroll distance students in the GSS Extended Health & Dental Plan
- Convened a Special General Meeting in June 2020 to seek member permission to
  - apply for a Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA) (~$30,000),
  - make use of the building fund (~$28,000), and
  - approve an emergency budget in response to COVID-19
- Drafted repayment plans for the CEBA and Building Fund loan
- Struck a hiring committee for the Executive Director position and completed the two-month search in October 2020
- Requested staff & board training from the Student Wellness Centre for supporting students dealing with domestic violence
- Approved a Management Hiring Policy to guide future management hiring processes
- Drafted a Remote Work Policy and Procedures document in consultation with the Labour Management Committee
- Formed two working groups focused on planning for the 2021/22 Executive Board training and transition

Next Steps:
- The restaurant space remains closed, the next Executive Board will need to develop a plan for the space once the university resumes in-person activities which accounts for the financial challenges the restaurant faced in recent years
- The GSS has a small budget relative to comparable student societies in Canada. We recommend the next board examine the impact of raising the GSS operating fees on the organization and membership

MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

Engaging with the membership proved to be one of the most challenging aspects of the pandemic. The loss of the GSS as a physical space and presence created hurdles in communicating with the membership and resulted in comparably low event participation relative to previous years. That said, the online-only environment forced the Executive Board to get creative and many of the resulting initiatives are worth carrying forward into a post-pandemic environment.
Steps Taken:

- Held two townhall events in April 2020 to gather information on how the COVID-19 pandemic and the subsequent shift to distance-delivery impacted our members
- Improved GSS social media presence
- Produced an E-Handbook instead of a traditional print handbook
- Drafted a GSS Style Guide to standardize GSS communications
- Worked within the Events Committee to utilize online events to sustain membership engagement; this included an events survey, a training series, and a speakers series
- Produced a Welcome to the GSS video to assist with departmental orientations
- Adjusted the requirements for department grants to reflect the online environment and incentivize the formation of Academic Unit Associations
- Created a Defender-Selfie template so that members that defended their thesis could still have their photo taken with the Defender
- Hosted a Graduate Student Townhall with UVic President Kevin Hall to amplify the voices of our membership

Next Steps:

- Evaluate methods to boost the GSS bi-weekly bulletin
- Utilize the now prevalent online tools to better engage with distance students post-pandemic

ADVOCACY & RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

Although the first half of our term was largely internally focused, we were able to effectively advocate for our membership and foster relationships with outside groups. Most notably being the creation of the Graduate Student Societies of British Columbia (GSSBC) – an informal alliance between the GSS’s at UVic, UBC, SFU, and UNBC focused on provincial and federal advocacy. Additionally, we established regular meetings with Student Wellness Centre and the Global Community Advisors with a focus on collaboration.

Steps Taken:

- Founded the Graduate Student Societies of British Columbia along side the GSS’s at UBC, SFU, and UNBC
  - Approved a Memorandum of Understanding for GSSBC at the February GRC which outlines the scope of the informal alliance
  - Advocated for the extension of the BC Graduate Scholarship, expansion of the eligibility for the BC Access Grant, and for the creation of an Office of Graduate Studies within the BC Ministry of Advanced Education
  - Consulted with the Federal Ministry of Employment, Workforce Development and Disability Inclusion to highlight how graduate education could be incorporated into the Federal Government’s COVID recovery planning
- Advocated for the Saanich Zoning Bylaw No 96078 change to increase the maximum number of unrelated persons in a household to six
- Lobbied for the separation of the ATRS & UPASS opt-in fees for at least the duration of the pandemic and potentially beyond
Established regular check-in meetings with the Student Wellness Centre (SWC) and the Global Community Advisors
Advocated for an extension of the rental supplement and eviction ban
Partnered with the University of Victoria Faculty Association on an All-Candidates Forum during the BC Elections
Signed onto a welcome letter to President Hall calling on the university to make a Climate Emergency Declaration and divest with the UVSS
Acted as an official Giving Tuesday Partner
Partnered with other student societies calling for federal post-secondary work permit accommodations for individual’s whose employment prospects were impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic

Next Steps:
- Continue active involvement with GSSBC, SWC, and Global Community Advisors
- Explore methods for establishing externally funded research assistants as employees of the university
- Investigate further ways to reduce housing costs for graduate students – though government policy or the establishment of a housing Co-op
- Continue to push for the permanent separation of the ATRS and UPASS fees for student opt-ins

EQUITY & REPRESENTATION

The 2020/21 Executive Board made Equity, Diversity, and Inclusivity a priority during their term. We released two statement’s of solidarity and advocated for equitable access to graduate studies. Additionally, we prioritized graduate student representation on UVic committees.

Steps Taken:
- Released a Statement of Solidarity with Black Lives Matter, calling on UVic to eliminate barriers to and within graduate education for BIPOC students
- Facilitated graduate student representation on 48 UVic committees
- Released a Statement of Solidarity with the Mi’Kmaq fishers
- Advocated for equitable access to graduate studies for medically vulnerable students and students living with medically vulnerable family members in the university’s reopening plan
- Formed a GRC Ad-Hok Committee tasked with evaluating the scope/composition of faculty and department Equity, Diversity, & Inclusivity Committees at UVic

Next Steps:
- Push UVic to compensate graduate student representatives on time-intensive committees. Specifically, consult with current student reps on the time commitment of their committees and determine which types of committees should be prioritized (hiring committees, etc), consult with Jim Dunsdon, AVP Student Affairs once this list is compiled
- Continue to advocate for equitable access to graduate studies as the university develops its reopening plan
- Partner with the Faculty of Graduate Studies in evaluating ways to eliminate barriers to and within graduate education
- Prioritize the Ad-Hok EDI Committee

Karen Potts, GSS Governance Coordinator, is the designate staff to support the committee as well.

2020/21 COMMITTEE OVERVIEW

2020/21 was a quiet year for the GSS Bylaw & Policy Committee, though not necessarily by choice. The onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, departure of the previous Executive Director, and the training/onboarding of the new Executive Director made it difficult to prioritize the Bylaw & Policy Committee. Since September, the committee was only able to meet twice, once in October and once in January. As such, this report will catalog the major outstanding initiatives/projects and provide suggestions for the future.

GOVERNANCE MANUAL REVIEW

A comprehensive review of the GSS Policy Manual was initiated by the 2019/20 Bylaw & Policy Committee. The previous committee reorganized the existing policy manual into the GSS Interim-Governance Manual, which was approved at the April 2020 GRC meeting.

Steps Taken:
- Compiled a list of motions related to GSS Position Statements
- Drafted Bylaw revisions to allow for online voting
- Gathered feedback from the Executive Board regarding the previously drafted Terms of Reference for the GRC Standing Committees

Next Steps:
- Clarify the process for making future changes to the governance manual by drafting a policy on policies. It is recommended that policies that relate to governance and representation require approval from GRC but that the Executive Board should have authority over operational policies.
• Draft guidelines to teach committee members about policy and assist them with updating the governance manual.
• Prioritize the completion of the governance manual update.

GRC ELECTIONS

At the May 2020 GRC meeting, the Bylaw & Policy Committee was tasked with reviewing how GRC seats are distributed among the membership. Although not much work was completed on this project, it may still be worth carrying forward into future years.

Next Steps:
• Currently, GRC reps provide a direct link between the GSS and members within an academic unit. Given that grad school can be an incredibly isolating experience and students in different academic units often have very limited contact with one another, the value of grad reps as a link to the membership in a unit cannot be overstated. As such, it is recommended that any change to how GRC seats are distributed continues to ensure that if an academic unit has a willing representative, then it gets a representative (regardless of if that rep steps forward in September or April). In short, it is recommended that additional seats are added to the current structure, rather than completely abandoning the current allocation structure.
• Given that all graduate programs are housed within the Faculty of Graduate studies, the logistical hurdle of assigning programs to undergraduate faculties must be accounted for.
• The committee should consult with the GSS staff and Director of Personnel (usually the Director of Finance) and develop an implementation and logistics plan prior to bringing any changes to a General Meeting.

BYLAW AMENDMENTS

The bylaws are due for a clean-up. A draft of potential changes has been produced; however, the committee has not had a chance to review it. These changes include allowing for online voting, reviewing the Executive roles, among other recommendations.

Next Steps:
• A comprehensive review of the Executive roles is warranted. The roles currently include outdated committees and responsibilities. Additionally, greater clarity on the distinction between the Chair and the Director of Student Affairs could help to reduce the Chair’s hours which consistently exceed the other directors by... a lot.
• Review the drafted changes that relate to online voting.
2020/21 Communication Committee Report

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Chair: Nicole Kent (GSS Director of Communications January 1, 2021-March 31, 2021)

Members April-August 2020
- Talita de Francesco
- Jacob Imbery
- Rivka Landsberg
- Monica Carbajal Uribe
- Hossein Ghanbari
- Alexandros Dimopoulos
- Neil Barney (ex-officio, GSS staff support)

Members September 2020-March 2021
- Rachel Schneider
- Maryam Monazami
- Rachel Colquhoun
- Brianna Parent-Long
- Neil Barney (ex-officio, GSS staff support)

2020/21 COMMITTEE OVERVIEW

Due to a transition in the Executive Board Director of Communications as of December 31, 2020, the Communications Committee was not able to meet from January to March. This highlighted for the Board and Committee the need to improve supports for distance students as the current Director of Communications is outside Canada and this resulted in delays to her onboarding and training. The outgoing Director of Communications has been elected for a second term. Some of the areas for focus includes improving overall communications at the GSS, especially around our social media presence, general communication from the GSS to students so there is ongoing communication to membership, and to implement a multi-communications strategy.

COMMUNICATIONS STRATEGY

Grad students’ voices matter, and the aim of the Communications Strategy is to promote GSS voices, provide a platform for them to be heard, to strengthen our graduate community and ensure engagement. The further aim of this Strategy is to maintain the creative and collaborative work of the grad community to co-create inclusive, rights-based, affective and focused communications strategies as a team. As stated previously, the Communications Committee must be central to the advocacy work of the entire Board of Directors and the GSS. In this way, these efforts will not be siloed. Rather, there will be collaboration. A Communications Committee exists to communicate the work being done on behalf of students not to create communication items. As such, Matty Cervantes lead the Communications Committee in drafting a new GSS Style Guide to ensure our communications remain consistent across platforms and issues. Nicole is working on the multi-communications strategy to improve communication materials and methods.

Steps Taken:
- Continued supporting Orientation material production for incoming graduate students in January 2021
- Posting the election and SAGM notices on the marque sign outside the Halpern Centre
• Social media strategy aimed at recruiting member participation in GSS and UVic governance and advocacy work
• Drafted new GSS Style Guide

Next Steps:
• Focus of brand image and integrity of GSS communications styles and strategies

GRC HANDBOOK

As with the 2020-21 Academic Year, it was determined that the 2021-22 GSS handbook will be produced digitally as the decisions around production had to be made by mid-February while no guarantees could be made around a return to on-campus learning for the next year.

Steps Taken:
• Revised the 2020-21 GSS e-handbook to prepare for production of the 2021-22 e-handbook

Next Steps:
• Will finalize production and distribution of the handbook throughout the summer months

GSS WEBSITE AND BULLETIN

Our website and bulletin remain an important way to get GSS messaging out to our membership. This year, we have focused on creating bulletins that advertise the most vital information for graduate students to be aware of regarding their GSS services (e.g. the Extended Health and Dental Plans), committee, volunteer, event and funding opportunities around our University community.

Steps Taken:
• Produced biweekly bulletins throughout the 2020-21 Academic Year
• Created space for collaboration with graduate students on topics of their interest such as research recruitment, research results or broader themes of interest

Next Steps:
• Update the website structure to allow for greater ease of use for students looking for information tailored to their specific needs (e.g. creating an international students landing page)

SAGM 2021 Events Committee Report

Daniel Gudino - GSS Director of Services

The following report enumerates the activities and responsibilities undertaken by Events Committee from August 2020- March 2021. It is intended to communicate to the membership the opportunities and challenges faced during this period of time, as well as detail the accomplishments and recommendations to move forward with this portfolio.

1. Committee Membership
   • Neil Barney, Staff (Events Coordinator; non-voting member)
   • Brianna Brandon, GRC Rep
   • Tiess McKenzie, GRC Rep
   • Adair NG, GRC Rep

2. Committee Projects

The projects and responsibilities undertaken by Events Committee responded entirely to the circumstances imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic. Traditionally, this Committee has benefited from larger participation of GRC members, but as the pandemic hit, events took a secondary role in the fulfillment of this year’s Executive Board objectives. The three members of the Committee, with tremendous support from our staff, stepped up to assume higher responsibilities, commitment and supportive roles for the accomplishment of the goals of the Committee. Without the energy, imagination and desire to serve the membership at large from this Committee, the following projects would not have been successful:

2.1. Membership survey

As the pandemic hit, GSS staff and Executive Board sought to understand operation and acceptance of online events. The hosting of the GSS’s traditional Wednesday Coffee in an online format, directed by Neil Barney, was intended as a tool to gauge membership interest in online events and zoom fatigue. Initial low turnout from membership made us rethink the purpose of Wednesday Coffee, as the inability to serve coffee and provide a space for conversation were not met with our first attempts. We decided to host an online morning event with invited guests across campus, so graduate students would learn the offering of services from different institutions at the University. The Student Wellness Centre (SWC); Uvic’s Equity and Human Rights office (EQHR); The Anti-violence Project (AVP); The Global Community (GC from International Student Services); the Centre for Accessible Communication (CAC), where all participants and hosted a coffee session with the GSS.

Wednesday Coffee provided with initial clues we had in relation to online events: formats, platform, time, contents. With this basic information, Events Committee proposed a membership survey to ask more specific questions related to online events. Questions were worked within the Committee and the survey was designed by a member of the Committee.

2.1.a. Steps taken:
Design, delivery and report of a survey focused on events interest
Evaluation and interpretation of results
Answers of the survey allowed us to define three specific programming for membership: 1. Training series; 2. Speaker Series; 3. Social events.
Support in the creation of a work-study position for a grad student to understand what the GSS can learn from the survey to organize online events, and how the GSS can use surveys in the future to engage with its membership

2.1. b. Current state:

Report from the work-study position will support in decision-making in the design and delivery of online events, and potential post-pandemic in-person events (whenever that is possible). It is really important to understand the needs of our distance students. Because all programming was offered online, we were able to provide access to events who otherwise wouldn’t have been possible. In order to serve better to members who are not able to be physically in Victoria, it would be important to consider keeping a few activities for remote access (when possible).

2.2. Training Series

These series of events were developed to bring training and skills development opportunities for graduate students.

2.2.a. Steps taken:

Hosted the first training series in collaboration with a community organization from Victoria. Naloxone training with AVI Health and Community Services was hosted on January 2021. This events series instructed students on how to respond to a potential overdose. The training also served as a space to discuss current drug policies and its different impacts across Victoria’s diverse populations. This training also showed that alliances -and interest- from the community outside the University exists.

2.2.b. Current state:

There are potential areas to expand with these series. Now that the framework has been developed and tried-out, there is possibilities for further training to be offered. For instance, there is the possibility for graduate training on antiracism skills with EQHR. Survey responses suggested other potential areas of interest for graduate training.

2.3. Social Events

This Events Committee, with support from the Director of Services, put particular emphasis on the portfolio expanding to academic and cultural events beyond social.

2.3.a. Steps taken:
We partnered with the Global Community to host a ‘speed-friending’ social event. In this event, graduate students interacted with other graduate students in different rounds, by responding to a personal question. The idea is to meet new people, have fun, and (socially responsibly) expand your ‘bubble’. It was a tremendous success, and the best attended event during this Events Committee period. The social event was hosted on February 2021.

2.3.b. Current state:

There is an initial commitment with the Global Community to host this type of events at least once/twice per semester, as allowed. There were members who are planning to run for GSS Executive Board’s next term in the event, and it was great seeing them interact with graduate students. It would be interesting to explore in the future how a social event can support recruitment for potential new board members, or support Executive board members connect with graduate students beyond GRC.

2.4. Speaker series

These series of events were developed to offer graduate students a chance to promote their research, expand their networks, and practice their knowledge translation skills. Speaker series focus on the creation of a platform for graduate students to engage in public discussions on their research topic and interests.

2.4.a. Steps taken:

- Events Committee has committed a large amount of committee work in conceptualizing this space.

2.4.b. Current state:

- Ideally, Events Committee will be able to host one Speaker Series event before the end of the term. Members will continue working to see if this is feasible by connecting with students who have shown interest in presenting. There are a few administrative details that the Committee still needs to work out.

3. Director of Services

As Director of Services, I would like to offer this report of my duties outside of Committee work, which I believe are in the interest of GRC and the graduate student membership at large.

3.1. Orientations

Along with the Director of Communications at the time, Matty Cervantes, we designed an introductory video on behalf of the GSS’s Executive Board and the Staff, for Welcome Week on September 2020. This allowed us to participate in more than 20 departmental orientations, and provide information regarding our services.
3.2. GSS Academic Unit Grant

Together with the Director of Communications at the time, Matty Cervantes, and GSS staff, we were able to update the GSS Academic Unit Grant, to reflect this period’s necessities, but also establishing a good set of priorities to support student association formation in the future. We hope the next Board can take advantage of the work done in this period to expand more graduate student representation throughout campus.

3.3. Community relationships

A large amount of time was devoted in the creation and sustaining of community relationships across campus. It is very important for the success of this portfolio to maintain and expand the relationships across campus, and outside of the University as well. Alliances will support in the better delivery of events. It is important to note that the GSS staff hold a healthy and supportive relationship with different stakeholders across campus, and that needs to be supported by the next Executive Board, as well as by GRC. These relationships support the better delivery of our services beyond events.

3.4. Hiring Committees

As part of my portfolio, I took the responsibility to represent Graduate Students in hiring committees across campus. This was an intentional action, as the time commitment and level of engagement required to represent in these tasks are tremendous for graduate students, as this activities are not remunerated or compensated. I currently represent graduate students in the committee struck to choose the next Dean of Graduate Studies at UVic. This is an ongoing process so no further information may be shared at this time.

It has been a great honor to serve graduate students in this role, and I’d like to thank the GSS Staff and the Events Committee members for their continuous support towards the fulfilment of this responsibility. It has been a great experience to share this work with my fellow Executive Board members.

Daniel Gudino
2020-2021 GSS Director of Services
SAGM 2021 Appeals Committee Report

Daniel Gudino - GSS Director of Services

This report outlines the responsibilities assumed by Appeals Committee from August 2020-March 2021. It also seeks to provide a description in the delivery of the services related to the health and dental extended insurance for graduate students.

1. Committee Membership

- Mindy Jiang, Staff (Health and Dental Coordinator) non-voting
- Jacob Hunt, Exec
- Erin Donald, GRC Rep
- Mel Granley, GRC Rep
- Tiffany Kuo, GRC Rep
- Maeve Milligan, GRC Rep
- Hannah Reid, GRC Rep

2. Committee Work

The number of appeals received in this period are unprecedented and signified a tremendous labor for the Committee. So far, this Appeals Committee has reviewed and decided over 30 cases of appeals. It has only been possible to accomplish the mandate of this committee thanks to the support and flexibility of its members, and the active and effective role of the GSS’s Health and Dental coordinator.

The Health and Dental Coordinator fulfills a mandate that goes above and beyond their duties. It serves as a mediator point between the insurance company, the University and the recipients of the services (graduate students). As Director of Services, I have witnessed first-hand the amount of dedication and time GSS staff dedicate to provide with the best services to the entire graduate community, and it has been thanks to this dedication that these services remain operational for the benefit of the membership.

The COVID pandemic multiplied and diversified existent problematics in our society, while it revealed other issues that might have been passing under the radar. While the pandemic hit and the University figured out how to adapt to the changes, some of the responsibility to guide and protect graduate students’ rights relied disproportionately on the GSS’s staff. As Director of Services, I feel it is in my responsibility to report that GSS’s staff work and commitment to protect students’ rights and benefits are remarkable and should not go unnoticed.

3. Director of Services

As Director of Services, I would like to offer this report of my duties outside of Committee work, which I believe are in the interest of GRC and the graduate student membership at large.
3.1. MTMI
I was assigned by the Executive Board to be the graduate student representative at UVic's Mandatory Temporary Medical Insurance Committee of Appeals. The MTMI is a temporary medical insurance for new international students, while they wait to obtain MSP. I received training and participated in two appeals meetings. This Committee work will be continued by the next Director of Services.

3.2. Senate Committee on Appeals
The Senate Committee on Appeals is an impartial final appeal body for students at the University of Victoria. In accordance with the University Act, the Senate has delegated to the Senate Committee on Appeals the authority and responsibility to decide, on behalf of the Senate, all final appeals from students involving the application of academic regulations and requirements. I have received training and will keep participating in this Committee as a graduate student representative, beyond my role as Director of Services.

3.3. University relations
As part of my portfolio, I took the responsibility to connect with different institutional bodies across campus, to benefit the delivery of GSS services to graduate students. Beyond monthly operational meetings with the Executive Board and UVic’s leadership, we connected with ISS to improve communication to international students and established periodical meetings to identify potential problems that would affect international graduate students in particular. Other operational meetings included conversations with the Athletics and Recreation department regarding Gym fees, as GSS has no responsibility or control over this fee but have been historically confused with the Bus Pass and Health and Dental insurance services. This was an important step taken to alleviate our staff's load of work.

It has been a great honor to serve graduate students in this role, and I’d like to thank the GSS staff and the Appeals Committee members for their continuous support towards the fulfilment of this responsibility. It has been a great experience to share this work with my fellow Executive Board members.

Daniel Gudino
2020-2021 GSS Director of Services
2020-2021 DIRECTOR OF FINANCE REPORT

Report Sections:

1. Duties of the Director of Finance (DoF)
2. Major Tasks and Projects Completed by Duty and Responsibility
3. Strategic Focus - Financial Stability
4. Report of the Finance Committee
5. Recommendations

DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF FINANCE (DOF)

The DoF is responsible for oversight of financial administration of the GSS together with the Finance Committee and the Executive Director. The specific duties and responsibilities of the DoF as laid out in the GSS’s Constitution and Bylaws are as follows:

a. Present budgets and audited financial statements to General Meetings for ratification by the membership
b. Report on the status of the extended health and dental plan at General Meetings
c. Act as chair of the Food and Beverage Advisory Committee* of the Society;
d. Be responsible for development and negotiation of staff and external contracts in conjunction with Executive Board;
e. Act as primary signing authority for the Society;
f. Normally act as the Personnel Officer for the Society;
g. Be responsible for other duties as agreed upon and assigned by the Executive Board.

* Today more often referred to as the Food and Beverage Committee.

The 2020-2021 saw more of an emphasis on work pertaining to Personnel Officer responsibilities that years previous, mostly due to the hiring process of a new ED of the organization.

MAJOR TASKS AND PROJECTS COMPLETED BY DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY

a. Present budgets and audited financial statements to General Meetings for ratification by the membership;

Circumstances arising this year lead to a delay in the presentation of the Audit to our Membership, but was done at the AGM occurring in November, with a revised budget to account for changes brought about by COVID-19 was presented over the summer at an SAGM in June of 2020.

b. Report on the status of the extended health and dental plan at General Meetings;

Referenda items passed over the summer caused an increase in fees collected from membership, automatically opted students into the health and dental plan, increased coverage including extended vaccination coverage. Presentation of items pertaining to the Hand and Dental fund were left to the new ED at the AGM in November.

c. Act as chair of the Food and Beverage Advisory Committee* of the Society;

Due to the closure of the restaurant spaces due to COVID and a reduced student presence on campus, the food and beverage committee did not meet this year or play a significant part in planning restaurant business for the upcoming year. Conversations around this topic were largely informal and relegated to mostly board level discussions.

d. Be responsible for development and negotiation of staff and external contracts in conjunction with Executive Board;

Services pertaining to the GSS remained largely unchanged aside from reduced traffic in the Halpern Centre and a closure of the restaurant spaces. Major Contract negotiations were minimal, aside from negotiations with restaurant staff around the emergency closure of the Grad House and Side Project Café. Contract negotiations for the new Executive Director was the other major point of negotiations this year.

e. Act as primary signing authority for the Society;

During the absence of an Executive Director from the months of July to November, I was also responsible for being the main point of contact with the auditor and bookkeeper. The prolonged absence of an ED caused significant communication issues leading to several backlogs of transactions. This issue was rectified with the hiring of a new ED.

f. Normally act as the Personnel Officer for the Society

The big task this year was striking a hiring committee to find a new Executive Director for the GSS. This was a long process but I think we came to the right decision in hiring Ms. Kyla Turner. Other issues involved participation on the Labour Management Committee to address staff concerns around workplace policies and procedures, as well as participating the hiring of temporary office staff and Work/Study positions.

g. Be responsible for other duties as agreed upon and assigned by the Executive Board.

Additional items required this year include:

i. Draft repayment plans for interfund loan from Building Fund Account
ii. Apply for the Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA) and draft repayment plan for next Executive Board to implement
iii. Serve on the Appeals Committee, as well as the Senate Committee on Awards

STRATEGIC FOCUS - FINANCIAL STABILITY

Despite the impacts of COVID-19 on the GSS, the two largest issues that the GSS was facing prior to the Pandemic continue to be an issue; the status of the restaurant spaces, and student enrollment. The latter item saw a small reprieve as enrollment increased slightly, but this should be considered indicative of a larger trend that we can expect to continue. The GSS is in a good position to address both of these concerns post-pandemic but resuming “business as usual” is not a viable strategy.
3 Steps taken to meet these challenges include:

- Maintained Closure of restaurant spaces in response to the COVID-19 situation
- Cut unnecessary spending in revised 2020-2021 budget, made conservative estimates about revenues collected over the year, shifted operations to primarily remote and services primarily offered remotely by minimal essential staff
- Came up with multiple scenario budgets to highlight costs of running restaurant spaces as; an open study spaces, a combined use space with reduced food and beverage services, and resuming regular operations in January of 2022.
- Have begun discussion with professionals on formal consultation of restructuring the space for most effective use
- 2021-2022 Budget was prepared with no expectations on changes in enrollment, leading again to a conservative estimate of revenues collected over the year.
- Apply for the Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA) and drafted repayment plan for next Executive Board to implement
- Get membership support to move $28,000 from building fund to Operating Fund to assist with cash flow, draft repayment plan

4 Current state:

- Conservative estimates of revenues collected has led to a slight surplus as of now; the dispersal of these funds has been a topic of conversation in recent Finance Committee Meetings
- The Restaurant space remains closed, with the ultimate decision of what to do with it falling to the next Executive Board
- Decision on restaurant will largely inform the nature of staffing moving forward, more importantly the scope of a second manager, if it is decided to hire one by the new Board
- The structure of the University’s response to COVID-19 and the return of students to regular campus activities still remains largely uncertain, so planning around a specified return date or expectation will be difficult to do, and thus, many things are still up in the air.
- GSS is in position to ably pay off both loan amount in a timely manner

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

The duties of the Finance Committee as detailed in its Terms of Reference are to:

- Support and advise on transparency of the financial administration of the GSS;
- Develop an annual budget for all GSS operations;
- Oversee the maintenance of the GSS capital budget, and to make recommendations to the Executive on capital expenditures;
- Make recommendations to the Executive Board on all significant matters of financial administration and policy; and
- Carry out all other duties as directed by the GRC.

The organization of the finance committee was all new members with little experience in finance this year, and remote meetings did not appear to make attendance from members an issue. With the closure of the restaurant and reduced services offered by the GSS this year, the proposed duties of the Finance Committee did not veer far from those outlined in the Terms of Reference. The additional item that was proposed that we explore is a more visually appealing and digestible format of the societies funds and accounts. Little progress was made on this item, due to a lack of meetings in both December and January. The timeliness of statements available from the bookkeeper made reviewing the finances of the society somewhat difficult to do in a reasonable time frame, which has been flagged as an area of concern for the next board and new ED.

The duties of the Finance committee was primarily to go over the larger membership presentations that were being prepared by myself, the rest of the Board, and the ED to come up with likely questions and areas of concern that might be flagged or brought up by our membership. As of this writing we have not had our last committee meeting, but our plan is to go over the proposed 2021-2022 budget and alternative scenarios to do the same thing; come up with questions and areas of concern that may be raised by our membership at the AGM later this month.

As far a budget prep, this was left primarily to myself and ED, which provided another opportunity to develop resources to accurately model various scenarios and budgets for the GSS’s future, especially given the uncertain nature of COVID-19 and the Universities response. Assumptions made were:

- B.C. Price index of 2.1%
- Stable enrollment through 2021-2022 fiscal year with a transition of student from distance enrollment to regular (on-campus) enrollment.
- Scenarios of continued restaurant closure, but using the space purely as a place for students to gather; an alternative use of the space (purposefully left vague for the next boards discretion); fully resuming old operations of the Grad House and Side Project Café in January of 2022.
- Multiple staffing situations congruent with the restaurant space scenarios

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE DOF AND 2021-22 FINANCE COMMITTEE

COVID-19 has shown that GSS has the capability of operating even under extreme circumstances, and that should be applauded. One of the unfortunate side effects of also being graduate students while serving on the board is the multitude of responsibilities that we may be saddled with at any given time. Due to the hiring process of the new ED, a large chunk of time that could’ve been spent planning for the Finance Committee over the Summer was spent on the hiring committee and Personnel Officer responsibilities. I hope that the next DoF does not have a similar situation on their hands, and in the event that they don’t, a few pointers on things to focus on if you’re struggling to come up with things to do:

- Spend some time reading over the ToR for the Finance Committee, and come up with suggestions of what to focus on during the year early. Obviously it is a democratic process, but if the sitting members don’t have much finance experience or committee experience in general, a few suggestions to just them an idea of what COULD be worked on would be helpful.
- Collect sources of Data that will influence the budget early as well. There are some established channels of reliable data but more is always better.
• Possibly continue the committee item of developing visual representations of GSS funds and finances, particularly monthly statements.
• Continue to monitor the viability of running the restaurant spaces and the amount of risk that is associated with each explored option. It is never meant to be a profit seeking venture, but should be thought of as a service to our membership, whichever form that space takes.
• Staff have opinions on how money is spent and on the proposed budgets and financial decisions. While some things must certainly be kept purely at the board and executive level, finding a way to effective incorporate staff feedback and suggestions with the ED would be a good thing to focus on moving forward.

Student Affairs Committee

Chair: Antoine Rose, Director of Student Affairs (2020-2021)

Introduction:
As one of the most important aspects of the Graduate Student Society, the Student Affairs Committee extends this fundamental aspect for vital advocacy for the graduate students. Our research and analysis within he committee has led to our ability to advocate for graduate students, with decisions taken at our committee and our subcommittee on RA Legal Status – one of our biggest achievements. As a chair of the Student Affairs Committee I have engaged with the Ombudsperson and the Executive Board, in order to advocate for the graduate students which required our help.

Committee Activity Report
As a committee we have been heavily involved with finding out the ultimate way to advocate for the student whose award has been halved due to the pandemic and it did not seem like the cause could be upheld officially by the board because the crisis circumstances navigated the halved funds to the larger scope of students, saving a lot of students from really negative circumstances.

Student Affairs Committee has been highly involved in defending the student rights of a PhD student whose supervisor's conduct led the student into a situation where his studies have been jeopardized according to the clear chronological report by the student. I have brought this student's concern to the Executive Board and the Student Affairs Committee. Strict dependency upon your supervisor has been an on-going issue at Grad School, and by bring this situation through various student affairs channels, which is of course the office of the Ombudsperson, this situation can serve as a case-scenario that leads to expand students' control of their own studies. Although members identified this situation as an individual student centered situation, I proposed the involvement of the ombudsperson and that action has been ratified by members, hence we continued thereof and the student received the right advocacy form the Ombudsperson which has helped the student immensely.
In our advocacy for the student who needed my help to resolve a deadline dissertation issue, which required me to contact the Ombudsperson after I was able to bring the case toward that decision ratified by the Student Affairs Committee and then the Executive Board. The Ombudsperson has an immense conflict resolution expertise, and this situation has been de-escalated and ultimately resolved, as a result of Ombudsperson’s actions which were brought to attention by the Student Affairs Committee.

As a Director of Student Affairs I have received multiple concerns from UVIC international students who have been dealing with an unprecedented number of problems as a result of covid-19 pandemic. Reflecting upon this concern, I have participated in a meeting with representative from different Canadian universities to discuss the issue of the immense problems the international students, and as a result I brought by the proposition made by Rahil Adeli, SFU’s Director of Academic Relations to discuss the potential of creating a BC Advocacy Office for International Students in liaison with SFU and other Canadian universities. The Student Affairs committee has discussed whether a creation of such a body would be vital for UVIC; nonetheless we have concluded that such a creation would be unnecessary as our research provided evidence that the ISS Office of UVic provides these services. My further Communication with Tricia Best, Director of the ISS Office I have discussed our Student Affairs Committee research in terms of a BC Office for International Students, and it was a positive discussion where Tricia was able to communicate her ideas and how GSS can be helpful in the future to the ISS Office, she also pointed out the ICA – Intercultural Association in Victoria, which can be mentioned to international students for supplementary support.

In the Student Affairs Committee we have been highly involved in the process of advocating for Research Assistants at the University of Victoria, by researching and analyzing all of the documents and the lawyer’s legal advice on changing the RA Legal Status to be university employees. Considering the amount of policy review, HR review, and legal review required, as part of the Student Affairs Committee - I created an RA Legal Status Subcommittee. Our subcommittee has been intensely researching how to make sure to write a strong proposal letter to the university president Dr. Hall - so that the RA legal status can be changed so that RAs become university employees. As a result of our research and analysis, we reviewed various nuances that are important for this proposal. In the lawyer’s legal advice all the back in 2013, there was a clear instruction that if we cannot achieve as GSS to change the RA legal status, we have to contact the local union. As a result of the previously rejected proposals: and legal documents, research and action taken in the last 8 years, we contacted SFU whose success with RA legal status change to university employees has been very helpful, and we organized RA Legal Status Subcommittee meeting with a UVIC CUPE 4163 union president Greg Melnechuk and we have learned an immense amount of knowledge with him, as he carefully observed how the RA Legal Status at SFU has been shifting to become university employees – and SFU GSS was able to spearhead that project by gathering all RAs and unionizing them, then presenting the union of RAs to SFU, who in return began changing their legal status to university employees. After the intense Subcommittee meetings and the Student Affairs regular meetings, as a chair of the committee I have drafted a Proposal to the University President to change the RA legal status, and it has been ratified by the Student Affairs Committee to go to the Executive Board, to be determined by the board if this letter will be sent to the university president.
Stipend Review Committee term report
Nicholas Planidin, Chair

As usual the, stipend review committee (SRC) has read, discussed and recommended the approval of the monthly executive board reports. Last year we updated the report template, streamlining this process a bit and (hopefully) making it easier for the exec as well. So far, the template has been working well, although a review and tweaking may be warranted in the near future. Most months four of the five executive reports would be received, however the person whose report was missing was inconsistent. We have tried moving back the SRC meeting to accommodate getting all the exec reports in prior and discussed whether this is an issue, however no direct action has been taken yet.

The SRC has drafted and eventually passed motions for the allotment of up to $2,000 for the training of the incoming executive board and allocated $750 to top up the current executive stipends for exception work that was done this year.

A review on the duties of the exec as outlined in the bylaws has been initiated and we are currently awaiting feedback from this year’s exec on how they felt their duties matched their day-to-day actions. This will eventually culminate in drafting a motion to update the exec duties bylaws and creating a job description document for each position; however, this will have to continue into the summer.

The SRC has reviewed its terms of service and updated the draft provided by the 2019-2020 Chair which was also updated by the 2020-2021 chair.

The SRC has begun planning on how to get feedback from the 2021 exec training, which will be the second time this program will be ran. This will be a brief report of the exec’s thoughts on the training in August and another report on how well the training prepared the exec for the term in December. This feedback and other documents will then be archived, and the training protocol can be updated. The SRC Chair will also be participating in training the incoming exec on the stipend review process.
Annual Update to the Membership on the Extended Health & Dental Insurance Plans
From: Kyla Turner, Executive Director

Plan Basics
The GSS provides graduate students with access to an extended health and a dental insurance plans through Pacific Blue Cross. The plan includes benefits for prescription drugs, ambulance services, paramedical services, basic dental care, and travel insurance benefits.

All full time graduate students with at least 3.0 units or more are assessed plan fees automatically with their tuition once per academic year. Graduate students assessed with the fees with tuition had the option to opt-in their dependents at additional cost during the opt-in period. Effective September 1st, 2020, part-time graduate students had the option to opt-in themselves and their dependents during the opt-in enrollment period with separate processes and payment through the GSS.

Members’ health and dental plan fees cover the premiums paid to the insurer as well as the cost for the GSS to administer the plan.

Plan Administration
Enrolment
As of March 11, 2021, there were 1815 students enrolled on the plan. 122 family units have opted in to the GSS Extended Health and Dental Plans.

Member Support
Staff work directly with our membership to answer questions about our plans and to resolve any problems they counter. Dominant issues in the past 4 months were:

COVID-19
COVID-19 continues to impact our Health and Dental plans administration, particularly by restricting travel for international students unable to come to Canada. As multiple vaccines have been approved in Canada and the BC government has released these without charge to BC residents, requests for information on the vaccines have slowed down.

Our Coordinator continues to work with UVic to ensure students receive up to date information regarding vaccinations and travel (including the need to self-isolate upon arrival in Canada).

Access to Service Providers and Benefits
The pandemic has decreased many students’ access to in-person healthcare services. Our Health and Dental Coordinator has gone above and beyond the scope of her position to draft resource lists for students for e-health services, including online counselling.

As many students are living outside BC this year, our Health and Dental Coordinator has had to coordinate care and access for students across all jurisdictions around Canada. This has meant significantly expanding our network of contacts to include most provincial and territorial basic insurance providers, (such as BC MSP, Ontario’s OHIP, Quebec’s RAMQ) to coordinate services between basic and extended health and dental insurance plans.
International Students and Students Studying Outside Canada

International students continue to be impacted by travel restrictions: increased testing and documentation requirements, and the need self isolation. The GSS continues to work with ISS to provide students with the information they need to travel to Canada or travel outside Canada for the students studying abroad.

For international students, eligibility for BC MSP is dependent on a valid student permit. Changes to the processing times for study permits meant it became a more frequent issue for international students to lose their MSP eligibility while waiting for their study permit to be renewed. The GSS was able to work with International Student Services (ISS) to ensure these students were aware they were eligible for temporary coverage through Guard.me until their study permit renewal was completed.

Appeals

Graduate students can appeal decision about their eligibility for opt ins and opt outs of the plan. Appeals are heard by graduate student volunteers who serve on the Appeals Committee. The Committee includes members from the GSS Executive Board and Grad Council, supported by the Health & Dental Coordinator. They meet monthly, receive training on the appeal process and insurance rules twice annually. Once decision are determined, the committee chair (Director of Services), works with the Health and Dental Coordinator to notify the appellants and implement the decisions.

The Appeal Committee heard 31 cases from September 2020 to March 2021. This is an increase from 18 cases last academic year.

Financial Outlook for the Plan

Retention Accounting

The GSS Extended Health and Dental Plans use retention accounting. A model of insurance contract that allows the GSS to share plan profits with the insurer without the risk of fully funding our own plan costs. The retention accounting contract requires us to maintain a Claims Fluctuation Reserve (CFR), calculated at 15% of total paid claims. Any profits above the reserve are available to the GSS to use in maintaining the plan. Since the shift to retention accounting, the GSS has been slowly building the CFR, and at August 31, 2019 the required CFR was achieved for both the Extended Health and Dental Plan for the first time.

Contract Renewal

The GSS renews the Extended Health and Dental Plan contract with the insurer (Pacific Blue Cross) annually. The broker, AON, negotiates the renewal and advises the Executive Board throughout the process. Negotiations are currently underway, and the broker has provided the GSS with an initial renewal notice that they are negotiating down on our behalf. As with most insurance negotiations with the GSS this academic year, there have been slightly delayed compared to last year. We will keep the membership informed throughout the negotiation process regarding potential costs of the Health and Dental Insurance plans for the next academic year.

Conclusion

The GSS Extended Health and Dental Insurance Plans remain a popular service for our members. The Health and Dental Coordinator continue to be busy throughout the year supporting students with questions about the plan and administering the opt in/opt out process. As of March 23, 2021, the plans are financial stable, but the GSS remains mindful that enrolment changes and increasing costs of healthcare are a risk area for the plans moving forward.
